Date January 3, 1990 Topic _____.Panamanian relief drive set for Thurs., Fri.

A clothing drive will be held on Thursday and Friday, Jan. 4 and 5, at the entrance to the SkyLight Dining Pavilion, to aid some of the estimated 25,000 people who lost their homes during the recent United States invasion of Panama.

Coordinating the drive is Marcelle Willock, M.D., chief of the UH Department of Anesthesiology and a native of Panama, who says, "there will be a long-term need for medical supplies of all kinds, as well as clothing and money." Willock is the president of her family's foundation, Fondation Deveaux, which provides food, clothing and other assistance to Panama's poor throughout the year.

Donations of tee-shirts, shorts and other summer clothing will be gratefully accepted. All donations, including money, can be deposited at a staffed table at the entrance to the Dining Pavilion on Thursday and Friday. After Friday, donations can be delivered to the Anesthesiology Department, Atrium 2; checks can be made payable to the Fondation Deveaux and sent to Dr. Willock, the University Hospital, 88 East Newton St., Mass., 02118.
